Her passion is serving in ministry by winning souls to Jesus Christ, helping others, from children to seniors. She has a passion to assist children aging out of the system, establishing in the future Christian resorts, that will serve to strengthen spiritual growth and development rest, and relaxation, as well as developing and partnering with women's organizations to meet our Proverb 31 development. Her desire is to please God as her passion of ministering to people is fed by the Word of God.

In 2002, Sis. Denette formed a Christian Business Network in Atlanta, Georgia, that helped women in business to connect and encourage one another. It soon spread to men, who grew to participate with their goods and services.

March 2004, she was recognized by CEO of DeKalb County Georgia in Celebration of "Women's History Month" 2001-2004, she founded and developed the African American Business Women of Vision- Atlanta, Georgia Chapter.

From 2005 to 2013, Elder Denette hosted "PrayNTime Ministries". A weekly morning ministry that bridged globally connecting Christians to hear a Word from Pastors who poured into the lives of others to assist them to reach their potential. It was a format for those growing in Christ to share experiences that others could benefit from, as we go out to witness. We are to "train them up and send them out in the name of Jesus Christ.

To sum up her journey, she wants to be remembered as "Building a Legacy for the Kingdom of God" in soul winning for generations to come.
